

Discover new ways to meet your planned giving goals.
Join Charitable Gift Planners of Central Ohio

Charitable Gift Planners of Central Ohio (CGPCO) is your local organization that brings together planned giving professionals, development officers, financial planners, foundations, attorneys and allied professionals to learn, network, collaborate and inspire one another.

In person training

Get training and education on the latest industry trends.

Networking opportunities

Join us for our events and build a local network of colleagues to rely on.

More effective charitable giving

Implement your new knowledge and tailored skills in your daily work.

Charitable Gift Planners of Central Ohio is an affiliated council of the National Association of Charitable Gift Planners. NCGP is your professional home—a place to learn, advocate and build your career through a national network of charitable planned giving peers. Together, the national and local chapter gives members the knowledge and connections they need to advance planned giving.

Combined local and national dues is $355 annually

Dues include all local CGPCO education lunch programs

Join now at www.CGPCO.org

